

Hi everyone

Some good news for a change....

Just a very quick message to let you know that our very own Jon Windover has now become a Dad. I am told that wife Anna gave birth to a bouncing baby girl "Katie Anne" who apparently weighed in at 7lbs at about 2:45am on Monday morning. Mother and baby doing well.

I am sure you would all want me to pass Jon and Anna best wishes from his many friends at the Bar and around the airport. Good luck to the pair of them - Now all their troubles really start - sleepless nights and dirty nappies and all that!!!! Have fun.....
